FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT A

THE CHALLENGE OF THE LENTEN SEASON

Lent is only a few days old, and we make Lenten resolutions, usually something in the area of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. This Lent pick something hard as a resolution, something that clashes with your convictions and your weakness. Pick something that is going to help you grow in virtue and holiness by flexing and testing your spiritual muscles for weeks.

This process is painful, but also purifying because through healthy self-knowledge you grow in humility. Do not get discouraged if you don't keep it perfectly. It is a stress test that can teach you a lot.

Today Jesus will renew his commitment to us by coming once again, body, blood, soul and divinity, in the sacrifice of this Mass, and by offering himself to us as the true bread from heaven in Holy Communion. When he does, let's renew our commitment to him.

Let's not leave this church today until we have decided how we can best respond during this Lent to whatever inspiration God has placed in our hearts.

Jesus doesn't want this Lent to be "just another Lent." He has something he wants to do for each one of us, something that will help us grow in our knowledge of the truth and in our ability to live accordingly. Let's give him the chance.
