DON'T JUST STAND THERE! DO SOMETHING!

The two men dressed in white in today's First Reading are asking us the same thing today that they asked the Apostles, "why are you standing there?" Waiting for the whoosh doesn't mean standing around and doing nothing.

The Apostles were active as they waited. They didn't know when the moment of grace, the whoosh, would come, but they knew they had to continue to do Our Lord's will.

He promised them power when the Holy Spirit came, but they were already at work. Sometimes we don't want to do anything until we perceive a whoosh: a boost of grace, some insight into Our Lord's will.

We must remember that, in faith, we know the floodgate of grace is open and we are being soaked in it. He's given us the sacraments, the Scriptures, and the help of the Church. We have plenty of grace to get to work. (E- priest.com)

A PRAYER FOR HEALING VICTIMS OF ABUSE

God of endless love, ever caring, ever strong, always present, always just. You gave your only Son to save us by his blood on the cross.

Gentle Jesus, Shepherd of Peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters who have been gravely harmed, and the cries of those who love them. Soothe their restless hearts with hope, steady their shaken spirits with faith. Grant them justice for their cause, enlightened by your truth.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people's wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness. Grant us the courage and wisdom, humility and grace to act with justice. Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors. Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
